4. Candidates who are admitted on the basis of the 1st/2nd round of online counselling and wish to change their course and institute against the remaining vacant seats may participate in the 3rd round of online counselling. If a seat is re-allotted to the candidate in the 3rd round of online counselling, it will be mandatory for the candidate to take admission to the newly allotted course and institute, as their earlier admission will automatically stand cancelled. The seat thereby vacated will be allotted to another candidate on the basis of merit-cum-choice by the Board. Upgradation of courses and institutes will be carried out only upto the 3rd round.

Admitted candidates who apply for upgradation of course and institute during counselling may also be upgraded to a different category/quota, depending upon the actual vacancy available as per the candidate's merit.

5. Candidates, whose names are included in the State Merit List released on 07.09.2026, do not need to submit an online application again.

6. If a candidate admitted through 2nd round of online counselling for a State Quota seat wishes to join an All India Quota (AIQ) seat allotted in the 3rd round, he/she will have to surrender the State Quota seat and submit a resignation to the State Quota admitting institute up to 03.10.2026. In this case, the candidate's security money will be forfeited.
